

SAILS UP 4 CANCER SPINNAKER FUND APPLICATION

SAILS UP 4 CANCER

This application is for Connecticut residents ONLY

Sails Up For Cancer provides assistance to under-served cancer patients in financial crisis who are undergoing active treatment for a cancer diagnosis. Funds provide assistance for non-medical household expenses.

SU4C considers the following but not limited to as

- Utilities (i.e. electricity, heat, gas and hot water)
- Phone and Cable
- Transportation to and from hospital visits and treatment centers to include Uber gift cards, gas gift cards, car loan payments and car insurance premiums
- Rent or Mortgage

Eligibility

All applications are required to be submitted by a Patient/Nurse Navigator, Social Worker or 501-(c)-3 administrator. Our policy is to work solely with a patient's social worker, we do not work directly with patients.

Is the patient in active treatment? Active treatment, for the purposes of SU4C, is defined as the period after a positive cancer diagnosis has been made and during which therapies are being administered, including surgical procedures, to remove the cancer, chemotherapy or radiation. Active treatment does not include long-term hormonal therapies such as Tamoxifen or an Aromatase Inhibitor.
